PUBLIC SERVICE (GENERAL) ORDER, 2020

The Minister, in exercise of the powers conferred on her by section 13(1) of the Public Service Act, makes the following Order:

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the Public Service (General) Order, 2020.

Definition

2.(1) In this Order,

“appropriate Service Commission” means the Judicial and Legal Service Commission, the Protective Services Commission or the Administrative, General and Professional Service Commission, as the case may be;

“artisan” means the office of carpenter, mason or painter;

“Code Number” means the letter or alphabet together with the number, if any, appearing in the

(a) second column of the First Schedule;

(b) first column of the Second Schedule;

(c) second column of the Third Schedule, Fourth Schedule, Fifth Schedule, Sixth Schedule, Seventh Schedule, Eighth Schedule and Thirteenth Schedule; and

(d) third column of the Ninth Schedule, the Tenth Schedule, the Eleventh Schedule, the Twelfth Schedule and the Fourteenth Schedule;

“(E.B.)” signifies an efficiency bar;

“established office” means any office established in accordance with paragraph 3;

“former Order” means the Public Service (General) Order, 2018 (S.I. 2018 No. 75);

“I.T.” means Information Technology;

“(Q. B.)” signifies a qualification bar;

“R. N.” means Registered Nurse.

(2) Where the emoluments of an established office are on a scale divided into segments by the symbol “:” no officer holding any office is entitled to any emoluments of that scale beyond the point at which the symbol appears until after such time as the Governor-General determines in relation to offices of that class.

(3) The powers conferred on the Governor-General by sub-paragraph (2) are to be exercised by him in accordance with the recommendation of the appropriate Service Commission.

(4) For the purposes of this Order, the reference made to a

(a) “/”, in respect of a Code Number, means that the Code Number to be applied to an office opposite that Code Number shall be applied in accordance with the qualifications stated in the Public Service (Qualifications) Order, 2016 (S.I. 2016 No. 92) that a person in the office holds;

(b) “;”, in respect of a Code Number, means that the Code Number to be applied to an office opposite that Code Number shall be applied in accordance with the qualifications stated in the Public Service (Qualifications) Order, 2016 (S.I. 2016 No. 92) that a person in the office holds;

- (c) “}” in respect of offices means that lower offices and higher offices within the symbol “}” are bracketed;
- (d) “-” means to.

Established offices in the public service

- 3.(1) The offices that are established offices in the public service shall be specified in the First Schedule and the number of those offices shall be specified in the third column of that Schedule.
- (2) Sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to the office of
 - (a) Director of Public Prosecutions established in accordance with section 79 of the Constitution of Barbados; or
 - (b) Auditor-General established in accordance with section 113 of the Constitution of Barbados.

Application of (E.B.)

- 4.(1) No officer holding an established office, the emoluments of which are on a scale divided into segments by the symbol (E.B.), is entitled to receive any emoluments of that scale beyond the point at which the symbol (E.B.) appears unless that officer passes an examination as the Governor-General approves.
- (2) Where the emoluments of an established office to which this paragraph applies are on a scale, no officer holding any such office is entitled to be advanced to a higher point in that scale until
 - (a) after such period of service in the office as the Minister determines; and
 - (b) after passing such examinations as the Governor-General approves.
- (3) Sub-paragraph (2) applies to such offices established by this Order as the Minister determines.

(4) The powers conferred by the Governor-General by this paragraph are to be exercised by him in accordance with the recommendation of the appropriate Service Commission.

Exempted persons from the Order

5. Subject to paragraph 6, this Order does not apply to any person who at the date of its publication in the Official Gazette is the holder of an office established by the former Order and by this Order, and who, not later than 3 months after that date, or within such further period as the Director General, Human Resources, Ministry of the Public Service, in any special case allows, gives the Director General, Human Resources, Ministry of the Public Service, a notice in writing of a desire to be exempted from the provisions of this Order.

Entitlements of exempted persons

6. Notwithstanding this Order, where a notice is given under paragraph 5, the person by whom the notice is given is, during such time as the person continues in the office held at the date of giving the notice, entitled to enjoy the rights and is subject to the terms, conditions and liabilities applying to that office before the commencement of this Order.

Annual emoluments

7.(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (3) and paragraph 9, the emoluments specified in the second column of the Second Schedule opposite to the Code Number appearing in the first column of the Second Schedule, are the annual emoluments attached to the office specified in the first column of the First Schedule opposite to which in the second column of the First Schedule the same Code Number appears; and those emoluments are payable to every officer holding the office according to the rates specified in the second column of the Second Schedule, except that the emoluments of an officer appointed to act in a senior office shall be determined in accordance with such conditions as may be specified by the Minister.

- (2) Any officer who on 31st March, 1976 held an office specified in the first column of the Third Schedule to this Order is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified opposite thereto in the second column.
- (3) Any officer who on 31st March, 1984 held an office specified in the first column of the Fourth Schedule to this Order is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified opposite thereto in the second column.
- (4) Any officer who on 7th May, 1990 held an office specified in the first column of the Fifth Schedule to this Order is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified thereto in the second column.
- (5) Any officer who on the 4th November, 2004 held an office specified in the first column of the Sixth Schedule to this Order and who received the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified opposite thereto in the second column is entitled to receive those annual emoluments.
- (6) Any officer who on the 15th August, 2005 held an office specified in the first column of the Seventh Schedule and who received the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified opposite thereto in the second column is entitled to receive those annual emoluments.
- (7) Any officer who on the 31st December, 2007 held an office specified in the first column of the Eighth Schedule and who received the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified opposite thereto in the second column is entitled to receive those annual emoluments.
- (8) Any officer who on the 1st December, 2009 held an office specified in the second column of the Ninth Schedule opposite to the Department or Division specified in the first column is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified in the third column.
- (9) Any officer who on the 1st April, 2009 held an office specified in the second column of the Tenth Schedule opposite to the Department specified in the first column is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified in the third column.

(10) Any officer who on the 1st day of September, 2009 held an office specified in the second column of the Eleventh Schedule opposite to the Centre specified in the first column is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified in the third column.

(11) Any officer who on the 1st day of August, 2010 held an office specified in the second column of the Twelfth Schedule opposite to the Division specified in the first column is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified in the third column.

(12) Any officer who on the 1st December, 2012 held an office specified in the second column of the Thirteenth Schedule opposite to the Service or Department specified in the first column is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified in the third column.

Effective date of emoluments

8.(1) The emoluments payable in accordance with the rates specified in the second column of the Second Schedule have effect from the dates indicated therein.

(2) Where an office specified in the first column of the First Schedule is established after 1st April, 2007, the annual emoluments attached to that office are payable with effect from the date of the establishment of that office.

Offices deemed to be established on 1st day of December, 1998

9. The offices set out in the first column of the First Schedule with a Code Number indicating a “C” scale appearing opposite those offices are deemed to have been established on the 1st day of December, 1998.

Officers deemed to have been appointed on 31st day of December, 2007

10.(1) An officer who

- (a) on the 31st day of December, 2007 held an office specified in the first column of the Fourteenth Schedule; and
- (b) satisfied the requirements of section 13(7) of the Act; but was not appointed with effect from the 31st day of December, 2007, is deemed to have been appointed on the 31st day of December, 2007 and is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified opposite thereto in the second column.

(2) Where on the 31st day of December, 2007 a vacancy existed in an established office specified in the first column of the Fourteenth Schedule and the officer

- (a) who occupied the office had been acting in the office for a period of not less than 3 years immediately before the 31st day of December, 2007; and
- (b) is qualified by virtue of the Public Service (Qualifications) Order, 2016 (S.I. 2016 No. 92) to be appointed to the office, and there is no other person whose qualifications render that person more suitable for appointment, the officer shall be entitled to be appointed to the office and is entitled to receive the annual emoluments denoted by the Code Number specified opposite thereto in the second column.

Abolished offices and emoluments

11.(1) Where an office established by the former Order and in existence on 1st April, 2007 is abolished, then, if the holder of that office is appointed to an office established in place thereof, in this sub-paragraph referred to as the new office, that person is entitled to receive the annual emoluments attached to the new office with effect from 1st April, 2007.

(2) Where an office established by the former Order which was in existence on 1st April, 2007 is abolished then, if the holder of that office is appointed to an established office other than an office established in place of the abolished office, in this sub-paragraph referred to as the “new office”, that person is, in addition to any emoluments payable in respect of the new office, entitled to receive for the period from 1st April, 2007 to the date of the appointment to the new office, the annual emoluments attached to an office specified in the first column of the First Schedule opposite to which, in the second column of the First Schedule, a Code Number appears corresponding to the Code Number of the abolished office.

(3) Where an office established by the former Order and in existence on 1st April, 2007 is abolished, then, if the holder of that office is not a person described in sub-paragraph (1) or (2), that person is entitled to the increases in emoluments attaching to that office prior to the abolition as if the office had not been abolished.

Offices of the Police Force below or above the rank of Inspector

12.(1) Where a recommendation is made to the Governor-General that a member of the Police Force of or below the rank of Inspector should be reduced in rank, the Governor-General may act in accordance with that recommendation notwithstanding that the demotion to a lower office of that member of the Police Force would result in the number of officers holding that lower office exceeding the number specified opposite to that office in the third column of the First Schedule, if the number of officers holding the office from which the officer is to be demoted and the number of officers holding the office to which the officer is to be demoted would not together exceed the total number of the officers specified in the third column of the First Schedule.

(2) Where an office in the Police Force of or below the rank of Inspector is vacant and no member of the Police Force is appointed on promotion to fill the vacant office, then, so long as that office remains vacant, an appointment may be made to any office in the Police Force below the rank of the vacant office notwithstanding that the making of such appointment would result in the number of officers holding such lower office exceeding the number specified opposite to that office in the third column of the First Schedule.

(3) The powers conferred by the Governor-General by this paragraph are to be exercised by him in accordance with the recommendation of the Protective Services Commission.

Revocation of S.I. 2018 No. 75

13. The Public Service (General) Order, 2018 (S.I. 2018 No. 75) is revoked.
