Repeal and replacement of section 18 of Cap. 324A

12. Section 18 of the principal Act is deleted and the following is substituted:

“Reserve Fund

18.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a licensee shall maintain a reserve fund and shall out of the net profits of each year and before any dividend is paid, transfer to the fund

(a) a sum equal to not less than 25 per cent of those profits wherever the amount of the reserve fund is less than the stated capital of the licensee; or

(b) such other sum as is prescribed.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a licensee for which it is shown to the satisfaction of the Central Bank that the capital base of the licensee is adequate in relation to its business.

(3) A licensee may only pay an interim dividend out of the profits of previous years or out of the reserves of previous years.

(4) The Central Bank may set a minimum limit on the reserve fund and may waive the requirement to maintain a specific maximum limit if it is satisfied that the licensee has adequate reserves.”.

Amendment of section 20 of Cap. 324A

13. Section 20(a) of the principal Act is amended in sub-paragraph (ii) by deleting the words “stated capital of all classes” and substituting the words “its capital base”.

Repeal and replacement of section 21 of Cap. 324A

14. Section 21 of the principal Act is deleted and the following is substituted:

“Restrictions on business activities

21.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a licensee

- (a) shall not directly or indirectly incur exposures to one person or group so that
 - (i) the total value of such exposures at any time exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;
 - (ii) where a portion of the exposures referred to in sub-paragraph (i) is unsecured credit facilities, that portion exceeds 10 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;
- (b) shall not directly or indirectly incur any large exposure to a person or a group where by so doing the aggregate amount of all such large exposures would exceed 800 per cent of the capital base or such other limit as the Central Bank determines;
- (c) shall not incur exposures to a related party
 - (i) on terms and conditions more favourable than the terms and conditions generally applicable to borrowers;
 - (ii) so the total value of such exposures at any time exceeds 10 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;
 - (iii) so that the aggregate amount of such exposures referred to in sub-paragraph (ii) exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base;

except that an equity investment in a wholly owned subsidiary that is a financial institution shall not be taken into account in the determination of an exposure;

- (d) shall not grant unsecured credit facilities of an aggregate amount in excess of $40 000 or one per cent of the capital base of the licensee, whichever is the greater or give any financial guarantee in excess of such amount without security, or incur any other liability in excess of that amount without security
 - (i) to or on behalf of any of its directors whether or not such credit facilities, financial guarantees or liabilities are obtained by or on account of the directors jointly or severally;
 - (ii) to or on behalf of any person in whom it or any of its directors is interested as a director, partner, manager or agent or as guarantor; or
 - (iii) to its holding company, its financial holding company, any subsidiary, an affiliate or to any of its directors;
- (e) shall not grant to its officers or employees unsecured advances or unsecured credit which exceed in aggregate for any one officer or employee, one year's emoluments of that officer or employee;
- (f) shall not, except in so far as may be necessary with respect to the interests or shareholding that a bank may acquire in satisfaction of debts due to it
 - (i) engage in or otherwise have a direct interest in, whether on its own account or on a commission basis, the wholesale or retail trade, including the business of import and export ; or

- (ii) acquire or hold in an aggregate amount exceeding 25 per cent of the sum of the capital base of the licensee, any part of the share capital of any commercial, agricultural, industrial or other undertaking,

but all such interests or shareholding, as the case may be, shall be disposed of within a period not exceeding 5 years unless permission to extend this period has been given by the Central Bank;

(g) shall not purchase, acquire or lease real estate unless

- (i) such real estate is necessary for the purpose of conducting its business or providing housing or amenities for its staff, having regard to any reasonable requirements for the future expansion of its business or staff; and

- (ii) the market value of the real estate does not exceed the capital base of the licensee,

except that where the licensee exercises its legal right in respect of any property which is the security for any debt, the licensee may acquire such property, but in that case, the property shall not be retained for a period in excess of 5 years without the permission of the Central Bank; and

(h) shall not

- (i) acquire, deal in or underwrite its own shares or the shares of its holding company or its financial holding company; or

- (ii) grant any credit facility secured by its own shares or the shares of its holding company or its financial holding company or the shares of a subsidiary of the licensee.

- (2) The provisions of subsection (1)(a) shall not apply to
 - (a) any financial exposures to the Government, statutory corporation or any other person where repayment is guaranteed by the Government;
 - (b) transactions in respect of which the portion thereof in excess of 25 per cent of the capital base of the licensee is fully supported by collateral in the form of cash deposits or securities issued by the Government; or
 - (c) exposures in such other form as the Central Bank may determine.
- (3) Where prior to the commencement of the this Act, a licensee has given to any person any exposure referred to in subsection (1), no action shall be taken under this Act against the licensee in relation to such exposure for a period of 3 years after that date.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply where the licensee has within the period specified in that subsection increased the amount of the exposure or where the licensee fails to comply with the conditions given by the Central Bank.”.

Repeal and replacement of Part III of Cap. 324A

15. The principal Act is amended by deleting Part III and substituting the following:

“PART III

TRUST COMPANIES, FINANCE COMPANIES, MERCHANT
BANKS AND MONEY OR VALUE TRANSMISSION SERVICE PROVIDERS

Licensing Requirements

Interpretation

22. In this Part, "licensee" means

- (a) a company licensed under this Part to carry on business as a trust company, a finance company or a merchant bank or similar financial institution licensed under this Part; or
- (b) a money or value transmission service provider licensed under this Part.

Business of trust company, finance company and merchant bank

23.(1) The business of a trust company, a finance company or a merchant bank or similar financial institution is

- (a) banking business; or
- (b) the business of the acquisition of funds by
 - (i) the acceptance of deposits;
 - (ii) the issue of shares;
 - (iii) the grant of loans;
 - (iv) the collection of premiums,and the investment of those funds; or

- (c) performing functions as trustee, administrator or executor in conjunction with its business conducted pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b); or
 - (d) such other business of a similar nature that is not specifically prohibited by the Central Bank by notice published in the Official Gazette.
- (2) A trust company, a finance company or a merchant bank shall not offer chequing facilities.
- (3) In subsection (2), "chequing facilities" means the acceptance of deposits that are repayable on demand and the payment of amounts to a third party by virtue of a claim drawn on the licensee and convertible into cash.

Business of a money or value transmission service provider

23A. In this Part, "money or value transmission service" means the business of accepting cash, cheques or any other monetary instrument or other means of storing value and paying a corresponding sum in cash or in another form to a beneficiary, by means of a communication, message or transfer or through a clearing system to which the money or value transmission service belongs.

Prohibition

- 24.(1) No person other than a bank licensed under Part II or under Part IIIB
- (a) shall carry on the business of a trust company, a finance company or a merchant bank without a licence issued under this Part; or
 - (b) carry on the business of a money or value transmission service provider without a licence issued under this Part.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(b), every person carrying on the business of a money or value transmission service provider shall, not later than 3 months after the commencement of this Act, apply for a licence under section 25A to carry on that business.

Contents of application

25.(1) A company that wishes to carry on the business of a trust company, a finance company or a merchant bank shall apply to the Minister in such form as the Minister may approve and shall

- (a) give the names and addresses of its directors;
- (b) give the particulars of the business it proposes to carry on;
- (c) give the expected minimum and maximum maturity periods of its advances;
- (d) provide such other documents and information of a financial or other nature as the Minister requires.

(2) An application for a licence shall be accompanied by a copy of the articles, by-laws or other documents constituting the company.

(3) An application for a licence and all documents submitted pursuant to this Part in support of the application shall be signed by the directors of the company making the application.

(4) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the applicant shall pay such fee as may be prescribed in relation thereto.

Contents of application: money or value transmission service provider

25A. A company that wishes to carry on the business of a money or value transmission service provider shall apply to the Minister in such form as the Minister may approve and shall furnish the Minister with such information as he may require.

Issue of licence

26. Where the Minister is of the opinion that it is in the public interest to do so, he may issue a licence under this Part to the applicant upon payment of the prescribed fee.

Conditions of licence

27.(1) A licence issued under this Part shall show the class or classes of business to be carried on by the licensee.

(2) A licence issued under this Part is subject to such conditions as the Minister may specify in respect of the class or classes of business to be carried on by the licensee.

(3) A licence under this Act remains valid until revoked pursuant to this Part, but it is a condition of every licence that an annual fee be paid by the licensee in the amount and at the time prescribed.

Application of certain sections

28. Sections 6, 7, 10, 11, 12 and 13 apply, mutatis mutandis, to a company under this Part as they apply to a bank licensed under Part II.

Sections not applicable to money or value transmission service providers

28A. Sections 31, 33, 45 and Part IIIB shall not apply to money or value transmission service providers.

Capital requirements

29.(1) A licence may not be issued under this Part to a company unless the stated or assigned capital of the company is $2,000,000 or such other amount as the Central Bank may in any particular case determine.

(2) The Central Bank may vary the amount of the stated or assigned capital required for the purposes of subsection (1) and such guidelines may contain such supplementary and ancillary provisions as appear to the Central Bank to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the guidelines.

(3) The fair market value of the fixed unencumbered assets of the licensee in Barbados as approved by the Central Bank may form part of the assigned capital for the purposes of subsection (1).

Reserve requirements

30. The Minister may, on the advice of the Central Bank, impose reserve requirements on any class of company licensed under this Part.

Application of further sections

31. Sections 17, 19, 20 and 21 apply, mutatis mutandis, to a company licensed under this Part as they apply to a bank licensed under Part II.

Restrictions on business activities

32. Section 21 shall apply mutatis mutandis to a company licensed under this Part as it applies to a licensee under Part II.

Reserve fund

33.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a licensee shall maintain a reserve fund and shall out of its net profits of each year and before any dividend is paid, transfer to the fund

- (a) a sum equal to not less than 15 per cent of those profits wherever the amount of the reserve fund is less than the stated capital of the licensee; or
- (b) such other sum as is prescribed.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a licensee for which it is shown to the satisfaction of the Central Bank that the capital base of the licensee is adequate in relation to its business.

Separation of trust assets

- 34. It is the duty of a licensee in carrying on its business
- (a) to keep all assets held in trust separate from its other assets; and
 - (b) subject to section 35, to keep separate from those of its other accounts the assets of each trust account unless they are properly identified as the property of the trust account.

Common trust fund

35.(1) A licensee may in the course of its business establish, maintain and administer one or more common trust funds and subject to subsection (2), invest assets held in trust accounts in a common trust fund.

(2) The assets of a trust account may only be invested in a common trust fund if the instrument creating the trust expressly permits the investment and the consent in writing of any co-trustee is obtained to the investment.

(3) A common trust fund is a trust that operates by the process of pooling funds from a number of participants in the trusts who share, as beneficiaries under the trust, in the income or other gains derived from the acquisition, holding, management or disposal of assets acquired for the trust.

Declaration of trust

36.(1) Every common trust fund of a licensee shall be established, administered and maintained in accordance with a written declaration of a trust in a form approved by the directors of the licensee.

(2) A licensee may sell assets held by it in a trust account to another trust account held by the licensee, if

- (a) the transaction is fully disclosed to the parties who have an interest in those accounts and their consent is obtained prior to the transaction;
- (b) the transaction is fair to both accounts; and
- (c) the transaction is not prohibited by the terms of the instruments creating the trusts.

Trust funds awaiting disposition

37.(1) A licensee holding trust funds awaiting investment or distribution shall not hold those funds uninvested or undistributed any longer than is reasonable for the proper management of the account.

(2) Unless it is contrary to the terms of the instrument establishing the trust, the trust funds described in subsection (1) may be held in the commercial or savings department of the licensee subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

Contents of declaration

38. A declaration of trust establishing a common trust fund must, subject to or in addition to other prescribed provisions, contain provisions relating to

- (a) the manner in which the common trust fund is to be administered;

- (b) the investment powers of the licensee with respect to the common trust fund, including the nature of investment to be made by the common trust fund;
- (c) the allocation and apportionment of income, profits and losses of the common trust fund;
- (d) the terms and conditions governing the admission or withdrawal of investments for participation in the common trust fund;
- (e) the auditing and settlement of accounts of the licensee with respect to the common trust fund;
- (f) the basis and method of valuing assets in the common trust fund;
- (g) the basis on which the common trust fund may be liquidated or interests therein may be disposed of;
- (h) the expenses to be charged for management of the common trust fund; and
- (i) such other matters as are necessary or proper to define the rights of participants in the common trust fund.

Dealing with trust assets

39. Subject to the terms of the instrument creating the trust, the assets comprising the funds of the trust may be sold, converted, re-invested, exchanged, transferred or otherwise changed or disposed of at any time by the licensee administering the trust.

Interest in common fund

40.(1) Each trust account that participates in a common trust fund has a beneficial interest in so much of the common trust fund as is proportionate to the amount of that participation.

(2) An interest in a common trust fund is not negotiable or assignable, but an interest in the fund may be disposed of in the manner provided by the declaration of trust or as may be prescribed in the absence of any provision relating thereto in the declaration of trust establishing the fund.

Status of licensee as trustee

41. The licensee in the carrying out of its trust business has all the powers, rights, duties and obligations applicable to trustees but subject to any requirements under this Act. ”.

Insertion of new Parts into Cap. 324A

16. The principal Act is amended by inserting the following new Part immediately after Part III:

“PART IIIA

LICENSING REQUIREMENTS FOR FINANCIAL HOLDING COMPANIES

Contents of application for financial holding companies

41A.(1) A company that wishes to carry on the business of a financial holding company shall apply to the Minister in such form as the Minister may approve and submit

- (a) a copy of its articles, by-laws or other instrument under which the company is incorporated or organised;
- (b) a copy of the audited financial statements of the company for the past three years, if applicable; and
- (c) any other documents and information, whether or not of a financial nature which are required by the Minister.

(2) An application for a licence and all documents submitted pursuant to this Part in support of the application shall be signed by the directors of the company making the application.

(3) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the applicant shall pay such fee as may be prescribed in relation to the application.

Application of sections relating to licensing requirements

41B. Sections 6, 7, 9 and subsections (1)(b), (1A), (2), (3), (4) and (5) of section 10 and sections 11, 12, 13, 14, and 15 relating to licensing requirements apply mutatis mutandis to a company licensed under this Part as they apply to a bank licensed under Part II.

Conditions of a licence for financial holding company

41C.(1) A licence issued under this Part shall be subject to

- (a) the condition that the capital available to the financial group is adequate;
- (b) the condition that the financial group controlled by the licensee is structured and managed in such a manner that it may be adequately supervised by the Central Bank; and
- (c) any other conditions which the Central Bank may impose in respect of the permitted business to be carried on by the licensee.

(2) The Central Bank may require a licensee to

- (a) submit information that allows the Central Bank to assess its cross-border banking operations; and
- (b) provide access to its cross-border banking operations to facilitate the Central Bank's assessment of the group's safety and soundness.

(3) A licence issued under this Part remains valid until revoked pursuant to this Part, but it is a condition of every licence that an annual fee be paid by the licensee in the amount and at the time prescribed.

(4) A licensee must obtain the written approval of the Central Bank before creating a branch, subsidiary or representative office within or outside Barbados.

Financial obligations

41D.(1) A licence may not be issued under this Part to a bank unless, in the case of a Barbados bank, the stated capital is at least $4,000,000 or such other amount as the Central Bank may in any particular case determine.

(2) Subject to this Part, a licensee shall not at any time have a capital adequacy ratio on a solo or a consolidated basis of less than such percentage as may be prescribed; and that percentage shall be calculated in the prescribed manner.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a licensee may be required to provide such additional capital as the Central Bank determines.

Application of certain sections relating to financial obligations

41E. Sections 18, 19 and 20 relating to the financial obligations of a licensee, apply mutatis mutandis to a company licensed under this Part as they apply to a Bank licensed under Part II.

Restrictions on business activities

41F.(1) Subject to this section, a licensee

(a) on a solo basis shall not incur exposures

(i) to any subsidiary or affiliated company in an amount exceeding 10 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;

- (ii) so that the aggregate amount of exposures referred to in sub-paragraph (i) exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base of the licensee; or
 - (iii) so that where a portion of the exposures referred to in sub-paragraph (i) consists of unsecured credit facilities, that portion exceeds one per cent of the capital base of the licensee;
- (b) on a consolidated basis shall not directly or indirectly
 - (i) incur aggregate exposures to its affiliated companies in such a manner that the total value of such exposures at any time exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;
 - (ii) incur an exposure to a person or group in an amount that exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base; or
 - (iii) incur any large exposure to a person or group if by doing so the aggregate amount of all such large exposures would exceed 800 per cent of the capital base or such other limit as the Central Bank determines.
- (2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply to
 - (a) any financial exposure to the Government, statutory corporation or a person where repayment is guaranteed by the Government;
 - (b) exposures to the extent that they are secured against securities issued by the Government;
 - (c) exposures to the extent that they are secured against cash deposits;
 - (d) exposures to the extent that they are guaranteed by a central government, central bank or monetary authority outside

Barbados or secured against such central government securities as approved by the Central Bank;

(e) exposures to related parties where the licensee is fulfilling a treasury role on behalf of the financial group and the financial group is subject to consolidated supervision; or

(f) exposures in such other form as the Central Bank may determine.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), an equity investment in a wholly owned subsidiary that is a financial institution shall not be taken into account in the determination of an exposure.

(4) A financial holding company shall not guarantee on behalf of any person, the payment or repayment of any sum of money except where the person is a member of the financial group controlled by the licensee.

Transitional provision for holding companies

41G. Any company licensed under Part II, Part III or Part IIIB of this Act at the commencement of this Act which carries on the functions of a financial holding company, shall at the commencement of this Act, be deemed to be licensed under Part IIIA of this Act and the provisions of this Part shall apply accordingly.

Application to this Part

41I. Sections 6, 7, 11, 12, 20, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 45(1), 46(6), 46(7), 46(10), 46(13), 50(c), 50(3), 50(4), and 99 shall apply mutatis mutandis to this Part as they do to entities licensed under Part II.

Licensing requirements and contents of application

41J.(1) An applicant for a licence under this Part to operate as a foreign currency earning bank from within Barbados must

- (a) be an eligible company or a qualified foreign currency earning bank;
- (b) give the names and addresses of its directors;
- (c) give particulars of the business that it proposes to carry on from within Barbados;
- (d) give the names and addresses of the shareholders and the number of shares directly or indirectly held by them; and
- (e) provide such other information of a financial or other nature as the Minister may require in any general or particular case.

(2) An application for a licence by an eligible company must be accompanied by

- (a) a copy of the articles and bye-laws of the applicant certified by the Registrar of Corporate Affairs and Intellectual Property Office; and
- (b) such other documents as may be prescribed.

(3) An application for a licence by a qualified foreign currency earning bank must be accompanied by the prescribed documents.

(4) An application for a licence shall be signed by not less than 2 directors of the applicant.

Conditions for issue of licence

41K.(1) A licence issued under this Part must show the class of business to be carried on from within Barbados by the licensee.

- (2) A licence is subject to such conditions as the Minister may specify in respect of the class of business to be conducted by the licensee from within Barbados.
- (3) A licence under this Part remains valid until revoked or suspended, but it is a condition of every licence that an annual fee be paid by the licensee in the amount and at the time prescribed.
- (4) It is a condition of a licence that the licensee must obtain the written approval of the Central Bank,
- (a) before creating a branch, subsidiary company, agency or representative office; or
 - (b) before opening a place of business outside Barbados.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to a licensee that is a qualified foreign currency earning bank but the licensee shall not, without notifying the Central Bank of its intention to do so, create any branch, subsidiary company, agency or representative office.
- (6) It is a condition of every licence that the licensee must notify the Central Bank in writing of any change in the directors or senior officers within 7 days of the change.

Other special conditions

- 41L.(1) It is a condition of a licence that
- (a) any shares of the licensee's capital will be in registered form;
 - (b) the licensee will not, without the approval of the Central Bank,
 - (i) enter into a merger, amalgamation or consolidation;
 - (ii) transfer, otherwise than in the ordinary course of its business, the whole or any substantial part of its assets or liabilities;

- (iii) change its name from that set out in its licence;
- (iv) alter its articles;
- (v) transfer any of its shares or alter its share structure;
- (vi) take any action to reduce or impair in any respect its capital; or
- (vii) repurchase its own shares or take any action which may have a similar effect.

(2) It is a condition of a licence issued to a qualified foreign currency earning bank that it will, in the manner and to the extent prescribed, separate its foreign currency earning banking business from its other business in Barbados and keep separate records of its foreign currency earning banking business and will permit and assist in an audit of all its undertakings in Barbados by auditors approved by the Central Bank.

(3) Before giving an approval to any matter mentioned in subsection (1)(b), the Central Bank may carry out such investigations as the Central Bank thinks fit.

(4) No person or group that is under the control of another person or group shall, without the approval of the Minister and subject to such conditions as he may consider necessary, acquire or hold shares of a value of more than 10 per cent of the stated capital of the licensee.

(5) Subsection (1)(b) and subsection (4) do not apply to a qualified foreign currency earning bank.

(6) Where approval has been obtained to increase the shareholding in accordance with subsection (4), no person or group that is under the control of another person or group shall hold shares the value of which exceeds the amount approved by the Minister.

(7) No person shall carry on any foreign currency earning banking business in or from within Barbados at any time when that person is not a licensee.

- (8) No licence may be issued under this Part to any person other than an eligible company or a qualified foreign currency earning bank.
- (9) No licence may be issued under this Part unless the company
- (a) has a place of business in Barbados approved by the Central Bank which will be its registered office;
 - (b) has, if the Central Bank so directs, appointed a person in Barbados who is approved by the Central Bank to be its agent; and
 - (c) has appointed a person in Barbados who is approved by the Central Bank to be its agent in the absence or inability to act of the person referred to under paragraph (b).
- (10) A licensee shall not
- (a) cease to have a place of business in Barbados;
 - (b) change its place of business without the written approval of the Central Bank;
 - (c) cease to have an authorised agent if required under subsection (9);
 - (d) change its authorised agent without the written approval of the Central Bank.
- (11) Any person who contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $25 000.

Financial Obligations

- 41M.(1) A licence may be issued under this Act to a company
- (a) that accepts third party deposits if the stated or assigned capital of the company is at least $4 000 000 or such other amount as the Central Bank may in any particular case determine; or

- (b) that does not accept third party deposits if the stated or assigned capital of the company is at least $1 000 000 or such other amount as the Central Bank may in any particular case determine.
- (2) A licensee shall not at any time have a capital adequacy ratio of less than the prescribed percentage.
- (3) The capital adequacy ratio shall be calculated in the prescribed manner.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (3), the Central Bank may at any time require a licensee to provide such additional capital as the Central Bank determines.
- (5) The Central Bank may vary the amount of the stated or assigned capital required for the purposes of subsection (1) and such guidelines may contain such supplementary and ancillary provisions as appear to the Central Bank to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the guidelines.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, "assigned capital" means such portion of the capital of a company represented by such unencumbered assets as approved by the Central Bank and specifically assigned by the company to its local branch operations.

Restriction on business activities

41N.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a licensee

- (a) shall not directly or indirectly incur exposures to one person or group so that
 - (i) the total value of such exposures at any time exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;

- (ii) where a portion of the exposures referred to in sub-paragraph (i) is unsecured credit facilities, that portion exceeds 10 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;
- (b) shall not directly or indirectly incur any large exposure to a person or a group where by so doing the aggregate amount of all such large exposures would exceed 800 per cent of the capital base or such other limit as the Central Bank determines;
- (c) shall not incur exposures to a related party
 - (i) on terms and conditions more favourable than the terms and conditions generally applicable to borrowers;
 - (ii) so the total value of such exposures at any time exceeds 10 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;
 - (iii) so that the aggregate amount of such exposures referred to in sub-paragraph (ii) exceeds 25 per cent of the capital base;

except that an equity investment in a wholly owned subsidiary that is a financial institution shall not be taken into account in the determination of an exposure;

- (d) shall not grant unsecured credit facilities of an aggregate amount in excess of $40 000 or one per cent of the capital base of the licensee, whichever is the greater or give any financial guarantee in excess of such amount without security, or incur any other liability in excess of that amount without security
 - (i) to or on behalf of any of its directors whether or not such credit facilities, financial guarantees or liabilities are obtained by or on account of the directors jointly or severally;

- (ii) to or on behalf of any person in whom it or any of its directors is interested as a director, partner, manager or agent or as guarantor; or
 - (iii) to its holding company, its financial holding company, any subsidiary, an affiliate or to any of its directors;
- (e) shall not grant to its officers or employees unsecured advances or unsecured credit which exceed in aggregate for any one officer or employee, one year's emoluments of that officer or employee;
- (f) shall not, except in so far as may be necessary with respect to the interests or shareholding that a bank may acquire in satisfaction of debts due to it
- (i) engage in or otherwise have a direct interest in, whether on its own account or on a commission basis, the wholesale or retail trade, including the business of import and export; or
 - (ii) acquire or hold in an aggregate amount exceeding 25 per cent of the sum of the capital base of the licensee, any part of the share capital of any commercial, agricultural, industrial or other undertaking,

but all such interests or shareholding, as the case may be, shall be disposed of within a period not exceeding 5 years unless permission to extend this period has been given by the Central Bank;

- (g) shall not without the approval of the Central Bank, invest in shares of an entity so that the value of the investment at any time exceeds 10 per cent of the capital base of the licensee;

- (h) shall not purchase, acquire or lease real estate unless
 - (i) such real estate is necessary for the purpose of conducting its business or providing housing or amenities for its staff, having regard to any reasonable requirements for the future expansion of its business or staff; and
 - (ii) the market value of the real estate does not exceed the capital base of the licensee,

except that where the licensee exercises its legal right in respect of any property which is the security for any debt, the licensee may acquire such property, but in that case, the property shall not be retained for a period in excess of 5 years without the permission of the Central Bank; and

- (i) shall not
 - (i) acquire, deal in or underwrite its own shares or the shares of its holding company or its financial holding company;
 - (ii) grant any credit facility secured by its own shares or the shares of its holding company or its financial holding company or the shares of a subsidiary of the licensee.
- (2) The provisions of
- (a) subsection (1)(a) to (c) shall not apply to
 - (i) exposures to the extent that they are fully supported by collateral in the form of cash deposits or securities issued by the Government, the Central Bank or any monetary authority outside Barbados or secured against such Government securities as approved by the Central Bank; or

- (ii) exposures in such other form as the Central Bank may determine;
- (b) subsection (1) shall not apply where a licensee does not accept third party deposits.
- (3) For the purposes of this Part, “third party deposits” means deposits from persons other than a licensee’s shareholders or related parties.

Directors, Officers and Auditors

410.(1) A director or a senior officer of a licensee shall cease to hold that office

- (a) if he becomes bankrupt or suspends payment to his creditors;
 - (b) if he is convicted in Barbados of an offence triable on indictment;
 - (c) if he is convicted outside Barbados of an offence that would be triable on indictment had it been committed in Barbados;
 - (d) if he makes an arrangement with his creditors; or
 - (e) if he becomes the auditor of the licensee.
- (2) Where a person ceases to hold office under subsection (1), that person may not be appointed to any other office of the licensee without the consent of the Central Bank.
- (3) Where subsection (1) or (2) is contravened, the director or the senior officer, as the case may be, and the licensee are guilty of an offence and are liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $25 000 or to imprisonment for 12 months, or to both.
- (4) No person may be appointed an auditor of a licensee
- (a) if he has any proprietary interest in the licensee;

- (b) if he is a director, or agent of the licensee or of an affiliate of the licensee; or
- (c) if he is an officer or employee of the Central Bank.

Disqualification of Directors

41P.(1) A person who has been a director or a senior officer of a company whose licence is revoked under this Act shall not be appointed to the office of director, the office of senior officer or to any other office of any licensee without the approval of the Central Bank.

(2) Where subsection (1) is contravened, the director, senior officer or officer, as the case may be, and the licensee are guilty of an offence and are liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $25 000 or to imprisonment for 12 months, or to both.

Disclosure of interest

41Q.(1) A director of a licensee who is interested, directly or indirectly, in an advance or loan from the licensee shall, as soon as possible, declare the nature of his interest to its directors at a meeting thereof.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply when the interest of a director in an advance or a loan consists only of being a creditor of, or having an interest in, a firm that is interested in an advance or a loan from the licensee if, in either case, the interest of the director is not a substantial interest.

(3) A declaration by a director of a licensee that he is interested in any advance or loan that may, after the date of the declaration, be made by the licensee, is a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any advance or loan made after the declaration, if

- (a) the declaration specified the nature and extent of the interest; and

- (b) the interest of the director is not different in nature from or greater than, the nature and extent so specified in the declaration at the time any advance or loan is made.
- (4) Notwithstanding sections 88, 89 and 90 of the Companies Act, Cap. 308, a director or an officer of a licensee shall not be present at or in any way participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors of that licensee when a loan, an advance or any other credit facility is being considered for
- (a) the director, officer or any of his relatives;
 - (b) a company in which the director, officer or a relative owns more than 25 per cent of the stated share capital; or
 - (c) a company over which the director, officer or any of his relatives exercises control.

Declaration of interest

41R.(1) A director of a licensee who holds any office or has any interest in any property whereby, directly or indirectly, his functions under this Act are likely to be in conflict with his personal interest shall declare the nature, character and extent of that office or interest to the directors at a meeting thereof.

- (2) A declaration required under this section shall be made
- (a) at the first meeting of the directors that is held after the acquisition by the declarant of that relevant office or interest; or
 - (b) if the declarant was not at that time a director, after he becomes a director.

Recording of declaration

41S. A director of a licensee who has declared any interest referred to in section 41Q or 41R shall

- (a) cause the declaration made by him thereunder to be brought up and read at the next meeting of the directors after it was given; and
- (b) cause the declaration to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it was made or read, or both.

Offence

41T. A director of a licensee who contravenes section 41Q, 41R or 41S is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $25 000 or to imprisonment for 12 months, or to both.

Insider information

41U.(1) A person who has acquired confidential information concerning a licensee

- (a) as a director, officer, employee, or auditor of the licensee;
- (b) as a custodian of the licensee; or
- (c) as an employee of the Central Bank,

shall not disclose that information to any person except as permitted under subsection (2), or use that information for any personal benefit not related to the duties through which the information was acquired.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the giving of confidential information

- (a) where the information is a general credit rating of a person that is supplied by a director, officer or employee of the licensee following a bona fide business request;

- (b) where the information is given with the written authorization of the beneficiary or his legal representative;
 - (c) where the information is lawfully required to be disclosed by an order of the High Court; or
 - (d) where the information is lawfully required to be disclosed pursuant to any other enactment.
- (3) In this section "confidential information" means information concerning the identity of a depositor, settlor or beneficiary of a trust, or concerning the assets, liabilities, transactions or other information in respect of a depositor, settlor or beneficiary of a trust.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $25 000 or to imprisonment for 12 months, or to both.

Remedial action

41V. Where the Central Bank is of the opinion that the operations of a foreign office of a licensee under this Part present a threat to the licensee's financial soundness, the Bank may require the licensee to make such changes in the operations of the office as are considered necessary or the Bank may require the licensee to close the office.

Misleading advertising, false statements and obstruction

41W.(1) A director, officer, employee or agent of a licensee, who, with intent to deceive

- (a) makes any false or misleading statement or entry in a book, account, record, report or statement of the licensee, or omits a statement or entry that should be made therein; or
- (b) obstructs the carrying out by an auditor of his proper function under this Part; or

- (c) obstructs the examination of a licensee as required pursuant to this Act, is guilty of an offence and is liable to the fine or imprisonment set out in subsection (3) hereof.

- (2) A licensee shall in respect of its business furnish the Central Bank with copies of all of its advertisements,

- (a) 6 months after the first issue of its licence under this Act; and
- (b) thereafter at 6-monthly intervals.

- (3) Any licensee which contravenes subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $25 000 or to imprisonment for 5 years, or to both.

Publication of information

- 41X.(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Central Bank may publish any information furnished to it under this Act.

- (2) No information concerning the business of a licensee shall be published by the Central Bank that might disclose the individual affairs of the directors or staff of a licensee or its customers without the prior written consent of all persons whose interests might be disclosed by the publication.

Use of bank in names

- 41Y.(1) Subject to subsection (2), no person other than a licensee may, without the approval of the Central Bank, use the word

- (a) "bank" or any of its derivatives in any language; or
- (b) any other word indicating the carrying on of any class of business to which this Part refers from within Barbados, in the name, description or title under which that person carries on business or intends to carry on business in Barbados, or make any representation to that effect in any bill-head, letter paper, notice or advertisement.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to such person as the Central Bank may exempt from the provisions of subsection (1).
- (3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $25 000.”.
