- (c) the prudent and efficient management of the Service; and

- (d) monitoring the performance of the Service with respect to the discharge of its functions.
- (2) The Board shall develop a funding policy for the Service.
- (3) If the Board proposes to amend the policy referred to in subsection (2), the Minister shall lay the proposed amendment on the table of both Houses of Parliament.
- (4) The Minister shall respond to the proposed amendment within 6 weeks of the date after it has been laid in Parliament.

Affixing seal and authentication of documents

11L.(1) The Seal of the Service shall be

- (a) kept in custody of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman, the Commissioner or the person performing the functions of the secretary to the Board and may be affixed to the documents or instruments pursuant to the Service, in the presence of any 2 of the persons referred to in this subparagraph; and
  - (b) authenticated by the signature of the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman and of the person performing the functions of secretary to the Board.
- (2) All the documents or instruments made by the Board, other than those required by law to be under seal, and all decisions of the Board shall be signified under the hand of the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman or the person performing the function of secretary to the Board.

Delegation of functions

11M.(1) The Board may delegate such of its functions as it thinks expedient for the purpose of effectively transacting the business of the Board to the chairman, a committee of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer.

- (2) The delegation of a function pursuant to subsection (1)
  - (a) does not prevent the Board from discharging that function; and
  - (b) may at any time be revoked by the Board.

Power of the Board to acquire real property

11N. The Board has the right to acquire and hold any real property for the purposes for which the Board is constituted, and subject to the approval of the Minister, to charge, whether by mortgage, debenture or otherwise and to dispose of such property.

Protection of the Board and its members

11O.(1) No act done or proceedings taken under this Act shall be questioned on the ground

- (a) of the existence of any vacancy in the membership of, or any defect in the constitution of, the Board; or
  - (b) of any omission, defect or irregularity not affecting the merits of the case.
- (2) No action, suit, prosecution or other proceedings shall be brought or instituted personally against any member in respect of any act done bona fide in pursuance of or execution or intended execution of this Act.

Role of Secretary

11P. There shall be a secretary to the Board who shall be responsible for

- (a) ensuring that all necessary arrangements preparatory to meetings of the directors or committees are made;

- (b) taking the minutes and recording the decisions of meetings of the directors;
- (c) the safe custody and control of all documentation relating to the directors or committees; and
- (d) ensuring that the Board acts in compliance with the requirements of the legislation relating to the Service.

- (5) Six members shall constitute a quorum.

Exercise of powers of directors

11U.(1) Every director shall in exercising his duties

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Fund; and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

(2) In determining the best interests of the Fund, a director must have regard to the interest of the Fund as well as the interests of the employees in general.

Conflict of interest

11V.(1) A director who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract or proposed contract with the Board or any other matter whatsoever in which the Board is concerned, shall declare the nature and extent of his interest at the first meeting of the Board at which it is practicable for him to do so.

(2) A director shall not take part in any deliberation or decision of the Board with respect to any contract or proposed contract with the Board or any other matter with which the Board is concerned, in which he has any pecuniary interest, whether directly or indirectly.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a director shall be treated as having an indirect interest in a contract or proposed contract with the Board or in any other matter with which the Board is concerned, if he is

- (a) a director;
- (b) a shareholder;
- (c) a partner; or
- (d) an employee,

of a company or other association of persons that is a party to such other matter with which the Board is concerned.

(4) A director mentioned in subsection (1), (2) and (3) shall not vote on the contract or proposed contract or any other matter connected to that with which the Board is concerned.

(5) A director or any employee of the Service shall not accept a gift or an advantage for himself or on behalf of persons with whom they have family, business or financial connections, if the acceptance would result or give the appearance of resulting in a diminution of his impartial performance of duties.

(6) Where a person to whom this section applies contravenes this section, he is guilty of an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $50 000 or imprisonment for 3 years or to both.

Actuarial reviews

11W.(1) For the purposes of assessing the balance between the contributions and rates of benefits, an actuarial review of the system of national insurance shall be undertaken within 3 years after the 31st day of March, 2024 and thereafter, during the period ending on the 31st day of March in every third year or such shorter period as the Board determines; and a report of every such actuarial review shall be forwarded to the Minister.

(2) In addition to the actuarial review referred to in subsection (1) the Minister may require an actuarial review to be undertaken at any time.

(3) The Board shall send a copy of every actuarial review to the clerk of Parliament to be laid on the table of both Houses.

Report and accounts to be submitted to Minister
