QUESTIONS

N.B. Question marked thus * are for Oral Reply

- *1 Ms. Cynthia Y. Forde (St. Thomas): To ask the Minister of Housing, Lands and Rural Development: 1. Is the Minister aware that: (a) Allen View, Welchman Hall, St. Thomas was selected as one of the districts to be included in the IDB Housing Neighbourhood Upgrade Programme? (b) That the implementation of the programme would bring significant benefits to Allen View? (c) That six (6) years after the release of funds Allen View has not been the beneficiary from any aspect of this programme despite numerous requests from residents and promises from the authorities to implement the project? 2. If the Minister is aware, will he state what immediate plans there are, if any, for the implementation of this project which is critical to the transformation of the living conditions and livelihoods of the residents who eagerly await relief from their current daily challenges.

Notice of this Question was given on 28th January, 2014.

- *2 Ms. Cynthia Y. Forde (St. Thomas): To ask the Minister of Environment and Drainage: 1. Is the Minister aware: (a) That Allen View, Sturges, Carrington Village, Welchman Hall, Bryan's and Bloomsbury are communities included in the new boundary of the Zone of Special Environmental Control? (b) That property owners and residents within this Zone of Special Environmental Control have been prevented from constructing new homes and other structures? (c) That those property owners and residents are prevented from engaging in large scale agriculture with the result that large tracks of land remain fallow? (d) That some householders have been denied water connections for domestic use despite numerous applications for the service? (e) That property owners are still required to keep the vacant lots free of bush and to pay exorbitant Land Tax Bills annually but because of the zoning requirement are unable to benefit from their investment? (f) That large tracts of land have been compulsorily acquired for the expansion and redevelopment of Harrison's Cave and property owners have not yet received any compensation?

If the Minister is aware, will he state what immediate plans there are, if any, for the resolution of these issues which are seriously impacting on the living conditions and welfare of all those property owners and residences within the Zone.

Notice of this Question was given on 13th May, 2014.

- *3 Ms. Cynthia Y. Forde (St. Thomas): To ask the Minister of Youth, Sports and Culture: 1. Is the Minister aware: (a) Rock Hall, St. Thomas has been declared the first Freedom Village in Barbados? (b) that six (6) shops were erected in 2009 at the Freedom Village site to afford residents opportunities to engage their entrepreneurial skills, providing services to locals and visitors through the plying of their trade and to gain income? (c) that the six (6) shops were critical to providing opportunities and hope to the residents who were integral in the vision and conceptual development of the Freedom Village Project? (d) that the six (6) shops were to be officially handed over to the concessionaires over four (4) years ago? (September 2011). (e) that the entire environs at the Freedom Village are dangerous and unkempt with deep ravines and overgrown bush, which would attract vermin and vandals that would in turn harm locals and visitors who visit that location daily? (f) that the Freedom Village Project merits completion so as to provide another attraction for visitors to the Island.
2. If the Minister is aware, will the Minister state:- (a) the status of the small shops and their completion date? (b) What plans there are, if any, to hand over the shops to residents so that they can proceed to ply their trade and earn an honest living? (c) What plans there are, if any, to debush and beautify the Freedom Village site so as to provide another viable option for the promotion of the heritage and tourism product? (d) Whether the Government intends to bring the Freedom Village Project to completion by the installation of the link bridge, the construction of the car park and the interpretation centre and other remedial works so that the project may become a viable entity that would earn revenue for this country.

Notice of this Question was given on 15th December, 2015.

- *4 Ms. Cynthia Y. Forde (St. Thomas): To ask the Minister of Tourism:
1. Is the Minister aware : (a) that the Government of Barbados has invested hundreds of millions of taxpayers' dollars in the redevelopment of Harrison's Cave over the past thirty-five (35) years? (b) that (Caves of Barbados) Harrison's Cave is one of the most beautiful attractions in Barbados for locals and visitors that has the capacity to earn large amounts of foreign exchange? (c) that the Redevelopment Project of 2006/2010 through the World Bank loan, totaled US$35m? (d) that there have been heavy financial losses in Caves of Barbados' revenue over the past seven (7) years?
 2. If the Minister is aware, will the Minister state:- (a) what immediate plans there are, if any, to strengthen the management structure and to institute stronger accounting measures to ensure efficiency and profitability of Harrison's Cave? (b) what plans the Ministry of Tourism has, if any, to lease the Harrison's Cave to a private entity/entities to oversee its management? (c) what are the immediate plans, if any, of the Ministry of Tourism and Caves of Barbados regarding: (i) the future of the existing staff, concessionaires and service providers; (ii) property owners, residents and those who qualify for royalties and compensation for land acquired to facilitate the expansion of Harrison's Cave over the years?

Notice of this Question was given on 15th December, 2015.

- *5 Ms. Cynthia Y. Forde (St. Thomas): To ask the Minister of Social Care, Constituency Empowerment:
1. Is the Minister aware: (a) that the Child Care Board is mandated by law to lay its Annual Reports and Financial Statements in this august Chamber? (b) that there have been no Audited Accounts or Reports laid since 2009 as required? (c) that a large percentage of reports from the public on matters pertaining to concerns about minors have not been formally handled or explored. (d) that some parents, guardians and relevant agencies are delinquent in providing the requisite information associated with all forms of abuse which are perpetrated on minors. (e) that a large percentage of under-aged females and males are abused by adults, particularly males, who are engaged in carnal knowledge with young girls, thus leading to teen-aged pregnancies, long-term trauma and hardship. (f) that the ratio of staff to wards is too large for effective and efficient management in the care and supervision of those in the various Child Care institutions. (g) that there are dozens of private businesses which offer Day Care services that are illegally operating. (h) that many of these facilities do not meet the required standard to operate or provide services nor do the staff members possess the requisite training or skill to provide quality care and supervision.

2. If the Minister is aware, will the Minister outline:- (a) what plans there are, if any, to have these outstanding Annual Reports and Financial Statements laid as a matter of urgency? (b) what resources would be required to adequately provide the appropriate staffing complement and housing accommodation for wards in the Children's Homes? (c) what measures there are, if any, planned for the upgrading or amending of legislation to enforce the laws which would prosecute such paedophiles and child molesters in our society who abuse our children? (d) what immediate plans there are, if any, to halt the blatant breach of standards set by the Child Care Board for the functioning of Day Care Centres and to enforce compliance by those illegally operated Day Care facilities? (e) what systems, if any, have been contemplated to increase the staff complement and upgrade facilities to provide the best quality care for wards.

Notice of this Question was given on 15th December, 2015.
